Being good shots, they sent home lots of game.

Fred Illis has sold his sugar cane press to Joseph Gruber, of Benton, who offers his services to the farmers of Benton and vicinity in this issue of the HERALD. Mr. G., is a reliable gentleman and the Press is No. 1, and we recommend him to the farmers of his locality guaranteeing good work.

PERSONAL.—Geo. F. Faber and Geo. N. Houghton, two of our popular young men, left for a visit to Chicago, last Monday.

the Messrs. Seegers, has returned to Chaska to resume his old position with Fred Seeger. This is welcome news to his host of Chaska friends.

hardware merchant leaves on Monday with his wife, for a two weeks visit to friends and relatives in Stearns and Douglas Counties. We wish you a pleasant time Matt.

Prof. S. Niles, of Rochester, and Boutelle, of Winona, in attendance upon the Institute this week, made us several pleasant calls during the week.

He has his hands full.

New Advertisements.

We call the attention of our County readers to the new adv., of Casper Speiss, of Waconia, dealer in lime, brick, plastering hair and brick mason, plasterer and building contractor. Casper is a first class workman and square dealer and does everything just as he says.
Call on him for whatever you need.

Criminal Suits.

Sheriff DuToit arrested Sam Moy last Monday on complaint of his son John, for having threatened to do him great bodily harm. The warrant was made returnable before Justice Sargent and was continued for one week.

Constable Niehaus, arrested John on complaint of his Father Samuel Moy, charged with having committed an assault on him, Sam, with a pool cue. He was taken to Waconia Monday afternoon for trial.

We deeply regret these family quarrels and hope they will be settled without further recourse to law.
Its better for the parties immediately concerned and also the tax payers of the County.

Death of Mrs. Geo. Fisher.

We are pained to learn that Mrs. Fisher, wife of our old friend George Fisher, of Waconia, died last Sunday, after a short illness.
Mrs. Fisher was well known throughout this section of the County and was held in very high esteem by all of her acquaintances and her death causes universal sorrow. She was a devout member of the Catholic Church, and her funeral last Tuesday from the Church at Waconia, was one of the largest ever held in that village.

The surviving members of the family have our warmest sympathy in their irreparable loss.

Died.

George Bleicher Jr., of Waconia buried a young child, from the Catholic church, Benton, last Saturday. The afflicted family have our sympathy.

Joseph Ess' Dwelling.

The masons are actively at work on this imposing structure and it is rapidly assuming tangible proportions. The building will be of a two story building 28x34, with an ell 15x22, the outside walls being of selected white brick. Oestreich Bros., consisting of H. E. & E.
Oestreich have the contract for laying the brick and plastering the structure while Messrs. Enger & Hanson have charge of the wood work, both firms being no 1 workmen. Mr. Ess, is guaranteed of a good job throughout. The dining room floor will be of paneled oak as also the wainscoting. The building when completed will cost in neighborhood of $3,000. Joe deserves a palace however, and we rejoice at his good fortune.

Dairy Association.

The Chaska Dairy Association held a business meeting last Monday and members put up in full for all stock issued and the association now owns 70 acres of the very best pasture land in the county.
Shares have already appreciated over 125 per cent. Fred Illis, is the active manager and is entitled to much of the credit for the present prosperous condition of the association.

School Meeting.

The annual school meeting was held last Saturday evening at the school house, some 30 voters being present.

The following board was elected, viz.
Trustees—Geo. Faber, Jr. 3 years " Mike Hammer 3 "
" J. F. Dilly 2 "

We are informed that an 8 month term of school was voted. We will publish the statement of the standing of the district hereafter.

Teachers' Institute.

The Institute was opened last Monday at 10 o'clock p. m. by Supt.
Vreysen, with instructors Niles and Boutelle present.

The roll call showed the following teachers present: Emma Johnson, Emma Du Toit, Hilma Branson, Tillie Crawford, Hattie Goodrich, Mary Churchill, L. M. Benson, Sarah Churchill, A. M. Woodruff, Margaret Kerk, J. Peters, Chas. H. Hardy, Frank Rossmann, John Kay, Frank Langston, Mrs. Stoughton, Bertha C. Smith, John Murphy, D. Dilly, Albert Lane,
C. J. Breca, Carrie Burke, Wendell Spencer, Kate Mallon, Rose A. Mallon.

The Institute work progresses finely and teachers as well as instructors seem to be very much pleased with each other.

The common school branches, besides physiology and school government are taught, and teachers who did not attend last a good opportunity of getting a clear view of the subjects presented.

State Supt. Kiehle lectured to the teachers at Concordia Hall on Tuesday evening. His remarks were favorably received.

Auctions.

Leonard Koehnen, Chanhassen, Saturday, September 9th at 9 o'clock a. m.
Peter Besemann, Benton, Monday, September 9th at 9 o'clock a. m.

Siegel's Mill.

Messrs. Wilford & Northway, the well known millwrights of Minneapolis, have been engaged to put in two pairs of Allis Rolls, another reel, elevators &c., into Siegel's flouring mill at a cost of some $1200. When these improvements are completed Mr. Siegel will have as good a mill as there is in the county.

A Serious Runaway.

The horse team of Ernst Tendo, of Dahlgren, indulged in quite a serious runaway last Tuesday forenoon. While they were tied in front of Hennings store a piece of newspaper was wafted past them so that they broke their halter straps and commenced a furious trip down the street striking the side walk near Delsing's shop breaking a new plow for J. Delsing and a cooking stove for Matt Myres; then they turned around Young's corner and ran down under Kerker's porch, demolishing the standing hitch post, where they were secured.

In their flight the horses and wagon passed over a young child of Anton Bury, but fortunately without doing him any injury. The damage inflicted by the runaway team will amount to some $60.

Soldiers' Re-Union.

Capt. Muehlberg, of Carver, has issued a call for a reunion of all old soldiers of the Union army to meet at Carver, on Friday, Sept.
29, for the purpose of forming a County Union. He concludes the call by saying that the "programme of the festivity will be published hereafter."

A Birth Day Festival.

The anniversary of the organization of the Pioneer-mannerchor Singing Society, of Young America, will be celebrated in that village next Sunday, Sept. 10th. We understand that the programme includes an outdoor picnic, society singing &c., and to wind up with a grand dance in the Hall in the evening.
The occasion will undoubtedly draw a large attendance of people from the country and outside towns.

Thanks.

We are indebted to County Attorney Odell and County Auditor Streukens for a number of extra Renville County prairie chickens. Its a luxury that editors don't indulge in very often, hence our extra appreciation of the remembrance.

The Yield of Wheat.

We have reports from several threshing machines as regards the yield of wheat. The yield varies in different localities, some farms yielding 22 bushels and over and other 18 and under. But we see no reason for changing our former estimate of an average of 20 bushels to the acre throughout the County.

Correction.

In your last issue there appeared a communication from "Scribendi" (!) which requires correction. The lady (Miss B. C. S.) who sent you the second report of the Lakewood Festival, and which appeared in your issue of the week before, was not untruthful as the writer of the said paper thought he had made out a case "as clear as the moon-day shining in the heavens." Had Miss "B. C. S." known in time that some one else had supplied an account of the Festival for your paper of the previous week, she would not have sent it, as she is not so exceedingly anxious to appear in print as "Scribendi" (!) but it was too late to recall it. The Young People Missionary Society in getting up the Festival authorized their President, Miss B. C. S. to request our Pastor, Rev. Mr. Hillman to preach the Missionary Sermon for the occasion, with the understanding that address etc., be made in the afternoon by ministers and others if so desired. Rev.
Mr. H. when he found out his mistake, made a graceful apology to the President, which we all fully appreciated. If "Scribendi" (!) is a gentleman, he will no doubt acknowledge his error in as public a manner as he has chosen to place Miss "B. C. S." in an unfair light.

C. THEODORE SMITH.

Norwood Items.

Considerable threshing has already been done, and some of the wheat has been brought to this market, which looks quite good, except that it is somewhat damp, from being threshed too soon after stacking, but wheat in this section will go nearly all No. 1. Farmers are feeling quite jubilant over the prospect. Threshing machines are numerous and the crop will soon be ready for harvest.

Our village was startled on Monday morning with the news of the serious illness of Dr. Lewis of Chaska, but the telegraph being brought into requisition it was found, the rumor was much exaggerated, and that the Doctor was in a fair way to recover. May he soon regain his former health and live to enjoy the pleasures of this troublesome world to a good old age.

Mr. Anthony Hoffron, one of our business men, has been prostrated with inflammatory rheumatism, but is now rapidly recovering under the care of Dr. Cash.

Our new brass band is making considerable progress under the skillful leadership of Mr. Bradley, and we hope soon to be able to announce that they are open to engagements.

We had a curious tramp in town on Monday night. He claimed to be sick and was ministered unto by some of our town Samaritans in way of eatables and cash. The latter, we learn, was expended for whiskey, and after getting gloriously drunk was helped out of town with shingles or something equally as hard, and the last heard from him was that he was enjoying the quietude of the woods between here and Young America.

Dr. Van Pohl of Waconia made our village his first call to-day, while on his way to Glencoe to attend to professional calls.

Miss Sargent of Chaska and Miss Williams and Miss George of Minneapolis are visiting Mr. Slocum's family.

Miss Emma Ricketts, of Rochester, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C.
Kaiser.

Mrs. Hebeisen of Carver has been in town for the past few days.

Mrs. M. Simonitch has returned from her trip to Otter Tail County, having been called there by the serious illness of her father.

—Regular terms of Probate Court, every FIRST and THIRD Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of each month.
JULIUS SCHALER, Judge.

The Maine election last Monday, resulted in a grand victory for the Republicans over the fusionists.

The exposition at Minneapolis last week was a grand success, and it is said that Bill King will clear upwards of $30,000 this year.

The State Fair, at Rochester closed last Friday, and the management announce that it has been a grand pecuniary success.

The Hon. E. P. Barnum, is the democratic nominee in the 5th District, and will proceed to make it interesting for kindred and Nelson from now on to election day in the bloody fifth. However, we hope he will succeed, as that district needs a little purifying.

The Democrats of the 1st District, nominated Judge Thomas Wilson, of Winona, for Congress last week. Milo White is the republican candidate.
Judge Wilson will draw more than his party vote, but its almost impossible to hope for his election in that intensely republican district.

The call for the democratic convention appears in this issue of the HERALD. The convention is called to meet at Waconia, on Monday, October 2d and town committees should see that candidates are properly called in each town in order to give the "rank and file" ample notice of time and place of meeting in each.

Mr. Jas. Slocum, of Norwood, traveling in the Eastern States, has written a number of very interesting letters descriptive of that part of the Union, to the Glencoe REGISTER.

Norwood Items.

Our Young America friends celebrated the anniversary of the organization of the Pioneer Mercantile singing society last Sunday. A good time is reported.
May they live long to enjoy their annual reunions.

We have been to King's fair but failed to see the dunker. However it was quite a success and, although we feel somewhat lighter in purse, no doubt Mr. King is able to congratulate himself and copartners on the amount of ducaats gathered in during the week, while we have come home to retrieve our scattered fortunes.
"Such is life."

Some wheat is being brought to market, for which the farmers are receiving No. 1, which at this writing is worth 90 cents. Thrashing is going briskly along and there are several new steam machines this season. Our friend James Connolly is running two threshers this fall and is giving good satisfaction. The yield is also a matter of congratulation.

Mr. Pieper, one mile north of this place threshed over seventeen hundred bushels of small grains on his farm, which speaks very favorably for Mr. P., who is considered one of Carver County's best farmers. We understand, however, that others have done quite as well in preparation.

The ladies of Norwood and vicinity can congratulate themselves that there is to be a millinery store established here, one door north of Mr. Frauschi's. More particulars next week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Slocum have returned from their eastern trip.

Tax Judgment Sale.

Pursuant to a real estate tax judgment of the district court in the county of Carver, State of Minnesota, entered the nine tenth day of August, A. D. 1882, and the statute in such case made and provided, I shall on the 18th day of September A. D. 1882, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon at the Court House in the Village of Chaska, and County of Carver, sell the lands which are charged with taxes, penalties and costs in said judgment, and on which taxes have not previously been paid.
L. STRUKKENS,
County Auditor, Carver Co.

WACONIA DEPARTMENT.

Great Goshawks! don't! Theodore and Scribner make the fur fly. Why in the world don't Scribner come to the rescue! This is right! Let brotherly love prevail!

So Mr. Spigs you think we shot far wide of the mark in regard to the teachers, institute. Please look at the report in Herald: only 27 teachers in attendance, and 75 teachers needed in the county this winter. Where was Scribner and others! echo answers where!

J. D. Sauter presented us with a fair specimen of the Beauty of Hebron potatoes. He has about 60 bushels which he will sell for seed.

John May paid $54.00 fine and costs for striking his father with a billiard cue. It was a "shore shot."

School will open on Monday, October 2nd. A teacher has not yet been engaged.

The 3rd commandment was frequently broken on Saturday and Sunday for the non-appearance of the Herald. Somebody needs punishing.

One side of a certain building in this town looks like Bruchschlegel's dog.

A. Eiselein has laid in the largest and most complete stock ever brought to this county. He buys for cash and can sell accordingly.

Quite a goodly number of our citizens took in the fair last week.

Mr. Botts, our new station agent is a gentleman who understands his business.
His family arrived Saturday evening from Taylors Falls.

See advertisement of P. Hannberg in this issue of the Herald. He is bound to be one of the live men of Waconia.

Hon. C. H. Egan of the Volkzeitung, St. Paul, spent Monday looking over our town.

Swan Swanberg has bought a cane mill and evaporator, and is ready to manufacture molasses for one and all.

Mrs. E. L. Stoughton will teach the Scandinavian school.

Geo. Kugler has notices out for an auction on the 27th inst., after which he will move into town and occupy his residence purchased from Mr. Whitehill.

Gust Dode, "der Miller," made things lively on Monday. He has left the republican party. Oh my!

Alex says he is in a hurry. A sure sign of a coming storm. Look out.

August Krause of Watertown township will have about 60 bushels of winter apples. They are of the Hana variety.

Andrew Peterson of Laketown has one of the finest gardens in that township. He has the best variety of small fruit in the county.

We are not a prohibitionist, although we have often been called a "temperance" but we believe that the M. S. A. for the P. of L. will help the temperance movement instead of doing it harm.
Their appeal to saloonkeepers for money to control the elections will arouse many to work who would otherwise have remained passive. We do not believe and hope that Minnesota may not vote in favor of such an amendment, but if the agitation of this question shall result in a better enforcement of existing laws and the teaching of the liquor dealers that other people have rights which they are bound to respect, then we believe great good may come from it.

Waconia has been selected as the place for holding the next democratic county convention Monday, October 2nd. The Republicans will probably do likewise.

P. Hannberg.

We call the attention of our readers to the business card of P.
Hannberg, of Waconia, dealer in hardware, jewelry, clocks, watches, sewing machines &c. Mr. H. holds forth at Mr. Lipp's old stand, and although a resident of Waconia, for only about a year, has already built up a handsome business which he is constantly extending, by his "fair and square" manner of dealing with the public. Call on him and be convinced that what we say is true.

solved to hold their annual parade on Saturday, Sept. 30.

Potatoes are selling by the wagon load at 30 cents per bushel, for winter supply.

Contractor Grates finished the brick work on Mr. Schuck's house last Monday, and will commence laying brick on his own residence this week.

Our public school commenced last Monday with a large attendance.
The same corps of teachers have been engaged for the next school year.

Reichow & Eder's will receive their enormous stock of Dry Goods this week, and will put them at prices that will astonish the natives.

Fred Bullmer, buried a young child last Sunday. The funeral took place from the Moravian church and was quite largely attended. The family have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

The household of John Etzell, was rendered supremely happy last Friday night by the appearance of a "handsome young miss," who "kicked the beam at 11 1/2 lbs. Congratulations, John."

We call the attention of our readers to the notice of Conrad Pfeil-ghaar, of Cologne, of a "farm for rent." This is a good opportunity for a person wishing a good farm for rent. For particulars see Mr. P.

A branch of the Equitable Aid Union was organized at Waterville, last week. There are already some thirty five Unions of this kind in the State, and it seems to be growing in popularity as an insurance organization.

The Mankato Review says a suit of the publishers of the History of the Minnesota Valley against Henry Shambert, of that place, who refused to take the book, and against whom judgment has been rendered, has already cost $65. The case is to be carried to the Supreme Court.

Those who feel it an object to buy where they can secure the greatest value for the least outlay will do well to examine our new fall stock. Miss H. Young.

Dr. E. H. Lewis.

Would respectfully inform his friends that he has so far recovered as to be able to attend to his office work, and short rides in day time to the country.

To Be Discontinued.

Under Washington advice published in last Monday's PROVERB, we stated that "Star route service from Chaska to Watertown, Minn., is to be discontinued from Sept. 30, 1882.

Now everybody in this county knows that this route is one of the most important in the county and its discontinuance will work hardship to every body living on the route; and in order to retain it, it will be necessary to secure petitions from different points along the line and enlist the aid of our member of Congress, by prompt action in this direction we may save the route, and we hope our citizens will take the necessary steps at once to secure this result. Time is valuable and delay may result in defeat.

Parade and Ball.

Our fire company at their regular monthly meeting last Saturday evening resolved to have their annual parade and ball on Saturday, Sept. 26, and for that purpose appointed an arrangement committee of five members to carry out the wishes of the company. A band from the city of Minneapolis will be engaged for the occasion and the boys of the fire department look forward to a big time on that day.
It is to be hoped our citizens will turn in and help the boys to make a little money this time.

Robbed At The Fair.

Chris Eder, of this city was relieved of his pocket book containing $38, while visiting the Minneapolis Fair last Thursday.

Paul Angerhoffer, of Arlington, Sibley Co., and well known in this county was robbed of his pocket book on Friday while waiting for the cars at the Manitoba Depot, Minneapolis. The pocket book contained $305, and a lot of notes.

The Saenger Fest.

We understand that the 21st anniversary festival of Young America Singing Society, was largely attended last Sunday. Large delegations being present from St. Paul, Chaska, Carver, Waconia, Dahlgren and surrounding country. The occasion was one of pleasure to those present from outside towns, besides being a profitable one to the Society. We regret not being able to be present.

Parties desiring wedding outfits can find a large assortment of Dress Goods and all colors of Dress Silk with trimmings to match at Minn-apolis and St. Paul prices.
Reichow & Eder.

Soft Wood.

Soft wood is now bringing $3.00 per cord in our market. All the brick yards and stone keepers are buying the same and paying the same price. Bring in your surplus.

Fire arms and ammunition are a part of our stock we pride ourselves in. Guns and revolvers, pistols, shot pouches, powder flasks, cartridges, &c. at lowest prices.
P. HENK.

Our county fair promises to be as good as any ever held in the county, but the full stock of dry goods and clothing now to be found at Mrs. H. Young's, surpass everything ever displayed in the Minnesota Valley. Go and examine it.

To Delinquent Subscribers.

This fall we expect each and every subscriber to this paper who is in arrears to pay up the amount he owes. We are blessed with a good crop this year, and it will not be a hard matter for any of them to pay up the small amount due. We hope all will be prompt in this matter.

We have quite a number of delinquents owing us for two or three years subscription, if not paid soon they will be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection.

Examination of Teachers.

Co. Supt. Vreysen, publishes a notice in another column, fixing the time and place of examinations in Chaska, Waconia, Watertown and Norwood. For particulars see notice.

Off To School.

Miss Clara Lewis, Lizzie Lin-enfelter and Lena Young, have gone to St. Paul, to attend school at St. Joseph's Academy, which by the way, is one of the best institutions in the State for the education of young ladies.

Jacob Hammer, son of Ferd.
Hammer, has also gone to St. Joseph College, Stearns Co.

Read the new advertisement of this enterprising firm which appears in this issue of the HERALD.
They have the largest, best and cheapest stock of clothing ever brought to this county. Their stock of groceries, dry goods notions hats and caps and boots and shoes, is also very extensive and they intend to make a "hole in it" so speaking, within the next two months. Call on them for big bargains.

PERSONAL.—Casper Kronenbush and Ernst Neumann, of Benton and Conrad Pfeighaar, of Cologne, were in town on Monday and called in to see us.

Sam Moy of Waconia was in town on Monday.

Fred Greiner, Fred Hennings, Philip Henk, Joe Kerker, and others of Chaska attended the St. Paul and St. Louis fair last Sunday and report a good time.

Hon. H. B. Strait, was in town greeting his best friends last Sunday. The Herald office acknowledges a pleasant call.

Dr. P. F. Shillock has opened an office in the Herald block, second floor, where he can be found at all business hours when not attending to professional calls.

Rev. Herman A. Gerdson of Lakewood, Ist Chaska, on the 23d August, for Bethlehem Pa, where he intends to be ordained and to get married. The bride is a daughter of Rev. Mr. Klinge pastor of Bethlehem congregation, the largest Methodist congregation in the America Province.

Mr. Gerdson has received a call to Birmington Iowa. May success attend his labors.

We invite comparison as to goods and prices, feeling confident that your decision will be in our favor. Mrs. H. Young.

A good girl to do general house work, liberal wages paid. Inquire of G. KRAVENBULL.

Serious Accident.

Carl Henke met with a very serious accident Tuesday while at work on Stroback & Co's brick yard. It seems they were moving one of the large brick presses from one yard to the other, and by some mistake it was overturned, crushing young Henke, crushing him down, breaking both legs, one above and one below the knee, besides injuring him about the back and breast.

Dr. Lewis, who has the case in charge cannot at present tell what will be the outcome of his injuries.

On Saturday Morning Chas.
Moescher, accidentally fell down the cellar stairs at his residence, and striking on his right side fracturing a rib. He is now doing well under the care of Dr. Lewis, and will soon be on our streets again.

Supt. of Schools.

A Farm for Rent.

The undersigned, administrator of the estate of Matthias Hoen, deceased, offers for rent the farm of said deceased M. Hoen, situated one half mile south of the village of Cologne, about 65 acres under plow, good meadow and pasture land, good dwelling and barn. Will rent farm for either one, two or three years.

Call on, or addressable and designed at Cologne, Minn.

CONRAD PFEILGHAR,

Administrator of the estate of M. Hoen.

State Teachers Institute.

The school institute closed last Friday evening after a continuous session from Monday afternoon.

The average attendance during the week being 25. The instructors Messrs. Niles & Boutelle giving the best of satisfaction. Evening lectures were given during the week by Supt. Kiehl, and instructors Niles & Boutelle; and were interesting features of the weeks programme.

We hope County Supt. Vreysen or some teacher present during the entire week will furnish our readers a detailed account of the work of the entire institute, believing it will prove of interest to the public.

Dr. E. E. Shillock.

Dr. Shillock, late of St. Paul, and a graduate of the University of New York, one of the best medical colleges in the country, has located in Chaska, for the practice of his profession. The Dr. graduated second in a class of two hundred and although young in years, has had more experience than many other practitioners, and we bespeak for him a liberal share of the business of this county. See card.

Cologne Items.

Business is picking up considerably.

Now wheat is being marketed here in large quantities.

Messrs. Borgward & Co., have their handful of orders for their popular brand of flour for the River Valley.

Threshing in this vicinity is now in full blast. 18 bushels of wheat per acre will be about the average.
Good yield though, hardly up to the expectation is many.

"Scribe ad" has been here. Oh, my! How high is that pole. Well, next time you come we will endeavor to have those horrid saloons closed during your stay. adieu.

Hollywood Springs.

Charles Klammer, living seven miles back of Hutchinson, has been here on a tour of inspection, as he wants to buy a farm.

Our corn will turn out well.
Potatoes also all right.

A noteworthy feature in "HER-ALD" of late has been the number of wires who have issued notices forbidding to sell drink, of an intoxicating nature, to their husbands; in every way proper, only let the good work go on, and grow stronger week by week, and what's of most importance, let the law be strictly enforced every time of a violation of the notice.

Threshing has commenced in this vicinity and grain is reported good in quality. Will know more about the yield in a short time, and then will advise your readers.

Our annual school meeting was attended by 16 persons, and it was resolved to have seven months school. For Director, Jacob Schock bore off the honors; for this school a teacher well versed in both languages has the preference. There are too few such in Co. Various improvements about and in school house were ordered.

The weeds here are the worst enemies a Holly wood farmer has to contend with on his farm. They are to be more feared than a politician or a tax collector, and that is saying a good deal.

Ludwig Karl wants to sell his farm for $4,000. Reasonable. Jacob Schock and Martin Little would also sell out on advantageous terms.
So here is a chance for buyers.

Watertown Items.

Fine weather for threshing.

New wheat is coming in pretty lively.

Cool nights but no frost yet.

Surprise parties are not fashionable in Watertown.

Peter Campbell's new store is fast reaching completion, and will be an ornament to our village.

Last Monday was our regular monthly fair, and was very largely attended. Sales were numerous.

We understand that the flouring mill at this place is soon to have a new coat of paint.

We are reliably informed that Dr. R. R. Todd, dentist, will again visit Watertown about October 1st.

When the Watertown correspondent to the Chaska "Valley Herald" states it will be something of more importance than the Watertown fire company that will kill him.

At the annual school meeting held a week ago last Saturday evening, G. Schellke, was elected Director. It was decided to have nineteen months school, and also decided to levy a tax of eight mills to pay for the schooling. If those proceedings be satisfactory the farmers of the District they should their peace, for there were but two present.

All persons interested in the Watertown Cemetery are requested to meet at the Cemetery on the morning of Saturday, Sept. 16th to assist in improving said Cemetery, bringing such tools as they can use for that purpose.

Watertown will furnish several candidates for the Legislature. We have plenty of good timber.

Eugen Schellke met with quite an accident last Saturday by upsetting his buggy and falling out.
His injuries, which were at first thought quite serious proved to be only slight.

WHY THE COWS CAME LATE.

Crimson sunset burning, O'er the farm hills;
Golden are the meadows, Russet the corn;
Quiet in the farm house, Home the farmer sits;
That his wife is watching, Shading anxious eyes,
While she lingers with her pen beside the barnyard gate, Wondering why her Jennie and the cows come home so late!

Jennie, brown eyed maiden, Wondered now at last;
There was no daylight
Had begun to wane;
Deeper grew the shadows, Cooling swallows chirp; Katydid are calling,
Mist or men low creep;
Still the cow sheds her eye beside the barnyard gate, Wondering why her Jennie and the cows
come home so late!

Loving sounds are falling, Toward now at last;
Specie, less and friendlier, Through the gate have passed; Jennie, sweetly blushing, Tame grave and shy,
Takes the pail from mother's hands and sinks; Not one word is spoken as the mother shuts the gate.

But now she knows why Jennie and the cows come home so late.

PAULINE'S LOVE.
A Story of Paris, from the German of Albert Melander.

Darius, an Englishman, arrived in Paris from New Haven, via Dieppe, and took lodgings in the Rue de Rome, in a respectable hotel, where, in a room, he had stopped some time before the war. His property was no longer the same, but in an adjoining cell he discovered familiar old faces. The woman behind the cashier's desk recognized and secured her heartily.

"I have endured terrible times since our last meeting," she said. "I have often thought that we would see you sooner, but after all, what can I have done for you without Pauline?"

"Without Pauline?" interrupted her hurriedly. "Is she no longer here?"

"She is no longer here," she said. "She has been here since then, but she is no longer here."

"And her husband?"

"He is married and temporarily engaged as an engineer in the marine department of the navy."

"I have heard of her since then," she said. "I have heard of her since then."

your Germany? Thither I never will go.

"Then you cannot love me," she commenced to sob violently.

"Content yourself," he continued. "For your sake I shall remain here. But suppose I were to go to Germany?"

"If I were to go to Germany, I would follow you to the end of the world; but alas! I believe that I will never see you again."

"Are you so inexorably devoted to Paris?"

"Paris is my fatherland generally."

"Above all other things, earthy; no, first comes my mother, my brother—no, you come first, I really believe, you—I am so confused; I really do not know."

"Angel mine!" and I kissed the tears from her beautiful eyes.

"My love was soon discovered. She acknowledged all to her mother, but she could by no means be brought to abandon the 'silly child's play,' as the latter termed it. In the end she locked herself up within her own apartment and rarely arose from her bed. It may have been occasioned by a dash of self-will, but when her mother subsequently tendered an invitation to her to recover from her indisposition she refused."

"I have hit upon the right physician," said her mother, smiling, as she came to her, "and she is now as well as ever."

We came into happy accord. Her mother demanded for her a complete isolation, but allowed me free ingress to the house. She could not find fault with me, for my position was that of a humble, independent and permanent resident.

"The inevitable," she said, "was that of my nationality, yet I was content with the inevitable."

"At that moment there suddenly arose a thunderstorm, and I was struck in the direction of Paris, and crushing struck into two loving hearts, and doubtless into the hearts of thousands of others."

We were broken out.

Who shall picture the painful and anxious expression of Pauline's face as she was brought to her? At the outset few words were exchanged upon the subject of her mother's return.

Death, an Enemy in Youth in Old

Arkansas Traveler.
"It is a pity to travel on an old man," was whispered around the court-room when a gray-haired personage, ragged and miserable, was arranged before the police judge. Though looked over and leaning on a rule case for support, the old man possessed a refinement of manner, an elegance of mien that attracted attention. His face was an expression of deepest sadness, and his eyes, as they wandered around the room, slowly from one to another and then gazed fixedly at a judge, spoke more of pathos than could be gathered within the range of the most gifted orator.

"gentleman," asked the judge kindly, "what is your name?"

"Rufus Welton." An old colored man at the far end of the room moved curiously in his seat.

"It is a great pity that a man so old and of such venerable appearance should be arraigned before a police court."

"Vagrancy," replied the officer.

"Yes, vagrancy," repeated the old man, "I have slowly and surely come to this, and again his gaze settled upon the judge."

"Why are you a vagrant, old man?" asked the judge.

"I have never asked mercy of any living man," replied the vagrant, "and I do not wish to plead my case. If I helplessly a victim of your law, then I will tell you why I am here after you pass the law of the land."

"The judge who could pass judgment upon me could not but be a judge of my life, and I have lived a life of hardship and sorrow."

"Head-like stiffness fell upon the room. An officer, who scratched himself, and then, as though moved by the spirit of St. George, perceived the place, and then, as though moved by the spirit of St. George, perceived the place."

"Before the war I was a planter," the old man said, "but during the struggle I was a soldier. I have seen many of my friends killed in the army, and my wife died of grief. I had to sell my land and come to this city."

OLD MASTER.

"Hush, light that old master's sleep," said Simon, bending over the bedside. "Twilight was deepening over the house, and the lamp had just been lighted. Simon's house, situated in a quiet neighborhood, among vines that climbed over its roof, was indeed a haven of rest after the toil of a busy day. The old man, who had been a planter, was now a soldier. He had seen many of his friends killed in the army, and his wife died of grief. I had to sell my land and come to this city."

"Hush, light that old master's sleep," said Simon, bending over the bedside. "Twilight was deepening over the house, and the lamp had just been lighted. Simon's house, situated in a quiet neighborhood, among vines that climbed over its roof, was indeed a haven of rest after the toil of a busy day. The old man, who had been a planter, was now a soldier. He had seen many of his friends killed in the army, and his wife died of grief. I had to sell my land and come to this city."

Water Finders.

One of these individuals who possess power of detecting water beneath the surface by the turning of a fork, or a hazel or apple-tree twig in his hands when passing over the locality where water was desired has made his appearance on Cape Cod. A Providence man says that the 'water finder' is quite old and nearly blind. "He locates water for well diggers, or pretends to, simply by moving about over the surface with his eyes totally blind. He pretends to move also the number of feet below the surface at which the water will be found. It is said that the old water finder is a farmer and a hatter, and that he has been successful at Beverly and Newport at $5 per day this season, and succeeded in locating water; also, that he has been successful in the presence of the men."

"Investigation shows that a person somewhat answering this description has been quite successful in locating water veins this season along the line of the eastern railroad, and that there are others in New England who have fully shown themselves possessed of the same 'power of divination.' In upper New Hampshire wells are often located by such means."

Pure Cold Water Oil made from selected trees, the best of the world, and is the best of the world. It is absolutely pure and sweet. Patients who have used it are sure to be cured. It is sold in bottles of 1/2, 1, 2, 4, 8, 16, 32, 64, 128, 256, 512, 1024, 2048, 4096, 8192, 16384, 32768, 65536, 131072, 262144, 524288, 1048576, 2097152, 4194304, 8388608, 16777216, 33554432, to be elected in that strong republican district.

Secretary of the Treasury Folger, the administration candidate, was nominated as the Republican Candidate for Governor of New York, defeating Gor. Cornell for a re-nomination. The contest was very close and exciting, and is heralded throughout the country as a grand administration victory.

COL. PFAENDER, of Brown County, is an independent candidate for State Senator, and the contest in that county promises to be a "hot one" this fall. There are already two or three tickets in the field, and more to come. The democrats have endorsed Col. Pfaender and he will probably be elected.

The call for the Republican County convention was published last week, but we inadvertently omitted to call the attention of our readers to the same. The convention is called to meet at Waconia, on Saturday, October 7th, and town committees should see to the calling of the primaries.

Little enthusiasm has been manifested by our republican friends up to this time but the call for the convention may stir them up and put some life into their canvass.

FRANK Mac Donald, brother of Judge Mac Donald, and editor of the St. Cloud Times, has been nominated by the democratic county convention of Stearns County, as their candidate for the Senate.

Frank is well known in this County, and his friends expect to see him elected by a rousing majority.

THERE seems to be very little stir in county politics except over the Senatorship. Streukens will encounter no opposition; Dr. Van Krevlin is entitled to the cornorship and will probably be nominated by acclamation. The legislative ticket should be selected with care and each part of the county should be remembered in making the nominations. If this advice is heeded by both parties there will be no necessity for grumbling hereafter.

BOTH County conventions have been called and we hope the different town committees will see that proper notices are given of all canes, so as to get the true expression of the people in the selections of delegates. Delegates are generally selected with the view of nominating certain men for office, and they generally carry out the wishes of those who send them to the convention.

Therefore it is important that the primaries are well attended.

Wedding Chimes.
Herman Manteloff of Waconia, was in town on Monday morning and procured a license for his marriage to Miss Eva Schmidt, a daughter of our genial Kaufman Schmidt. The happy event takes place to day. That the young couple may have a happy journey o'er life's rugged paths, and that their days of unalloyed conjugal bliss may be many, is the earnest wish of the HERALD.

Commr. Paulson Has Resigned.

We understand that County Commissioner Henry Paulson, of the Carver District, has sent in his resignation as county commissioner, to take effect upon its acceptance by the Board of county Commissioners. The letter is dated from Dakota Territory, which has been his home since he sold his farm. The Auditor, Register of Deeds and Judge of Probate are the appointing power and will designate the next Commissioner.

Waconia Items.

Those errors appearing in our last week's items were not ours.
Come to Waconia to buy your fall and winter clothing.
School books, school bags for children, slates, pens and pencils at the drug store.

Eiselhue has been taking in from 1200 to 2000 bush, of wheat per day the past week.

New girls, new stores, new prices in Waconia.

Mrs. A. Eiselhue is visiting friends in St. Paul.

Barnhardt Hauken is very sick.

The last cold snap has driven the tourists into winter quarters.

There seems to be a scarcity of teachers in Carver County.

Our village school will open on Monday.

A tin "but" what a queer looking object! A tin hat comes a little nearer to the truth.

You ought to just see those nice dress goods at Hemmings.

Call on Eiselhue young men, & let him dress you up in the very latest style.

Six weeks have elapsed & no word from Whitkill.

Potatoes in this vicinity are about all dug.

Loud talk, drunkenness, fights, street scenes of a most disgusting character, & night made hideous generally, may be agreeable to certain "loving" citizens who manage some of our public houses, but to those living in that immediate vicinity who prefer to spend the night in quiet sleep but are ever & anon disturbed can't appreciate so much liberty & most earnestly wish that the comfort of the neighborhood might be considered in the future.

Kunz Habeck—On Tuesday Sep.
26th, at the Catholic church, Matthias Kunz was united in matrimony to Miss Emma Habeck, all of Waconia. A large audience was present, composed principally of relatives of the bride and groom.
The bride was becomingly attired in a dress of wine colored silk, long handsome veil and beautiful flowers. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the brides parents, where Mr. and Mrs. Kunz received the hearty congratulations of relatives and friends. The presents were beautiful, useful and too numerous to mention. May the white dove of peace hover over them and the blossoms of happiness be strewn around them all along this wondrous way, are the wishes of a host of friends.

I saw her and I loved her,
I sought her and I won.
A dozen pleasant summers Since then away here run, And half as many winters Now parting round her side Reminds me of the autumn When Emma was my bride.

Power of Independent School District Officers.

A LETTER FROM SUPT KIRKLE.

Chaska, Sept. 25th 1882.

HON. D. L. KIRKLE, Supt. of Public Instruction, St. Paul, Minn.

DEAR SIR: At our last annual school meeting Independent School District of Chaska, the question arose, by some members of said meeting, denying the authority of the Board of Education of said Independent District, in fixing, prior to said meeting, the term of the school year at nine months, without the majority of the voters of said District.

I am satisfied that said Board had such right granted by section 112 of the school law, but for the general satisfaction of the residents of said District, I respectfully, in the name of said Board, call upon you for the opinion of the Attorney General in the subject.

In complying with the above request you will greatly oblige, Respectfully Yours, G. Krayenbuhl, Clerk Ind. school Dist of Chaska.

St. Paul, Sept 7, 1882.

G. KRAYENBUHL, Clerk of School Board, Chaska, Minn.

SIR: Your favor of the 5th making inquiry concerning the authority of school boards of independent districts is received.

In reply—There is no doubt that the board of education of an independent district has full power to organize, continue and discontinue the school in their discretion, vid sec. 111, school laws.

Very Truly, D. L. KIRKLE, Sup. Pub. Inst.

New Village Marshal.

Jerry Elmann, resigned the office of village marshal last week, and the village council at their last meeting appointed Ernest Benemann, to the position. Mr. B. is a very suitable person for the position and we expect that he will make a very popular officer.

Death of Nick Mathias.

We omitted to state in our last week's issue, that Nicholas Mathias, brother of John Mathias, the carpenter of St. Paul, and a resident of this county in 1857, died suddenly in that city last week of cancer of the stomach. Nick was a great favorite with his friends and his death causes universal regret.

County Fair.

The County Fair at this place promises to be a great success. It will be conducted on a much larger scale than any held here before, and from the reports we have, it is evident that a much larger number of people from this county, as well as other counties will be present.

New Buildings.

Although it is getting late in the season, the building "boom" continues in our village. In addition to the new buildings noted in our last issue, work has been commenced upon the foundation for two more brick dwelling houses, as follows.

The Bierline Bros. have purchased a half block from Warner & James laying just west of Dr. Lewis residence, and have commenced work upon the foundation and cellar for a large two story brick dwelling house, which they intend to have completed in time to move into this fall. They are go-ahead boys and when they set out to do anything they don't allow trifles to interfere with them. We will give dimensions as soon as work is commenced upon the main structure.

Henry Oels has also commenced work upon the foundation of a new brick residence to be erected near Mr. Klammer's residence.

We also understand that other parties still contemplate building this fall. Let the good work go on; the more the merrier.

Caution.

All persons are warned against purchasing or receiving in any manner any note or order given or purporting to have been given by Nathaniel Cole, of Young America, Carver Co. Minn., to the Eagle Machine works of Columbus Ohio for Grinders, which note or order is claimed to have been fraudulently obtained by one George K. Smith.

Dated Sept. 22d 1882.

NATHANIEL COLE.

Hon. F. J. Whitlock.

Col. Barter has engaged Hon. F. J. Whitlock, of Belle Plaine to deliver the address at Chaska on Saturday in his place.

Judge Whitlock has for many years been a leading officer of the State Agricultural Society. He is a farmer and one of best speakers in the State. It is fortunate for the farmers who attend the Fair, as well as others that Judge Whitlock has consented to address them.

Hollywood Springs.

Waconia has a lively, racy, spicy and wide awake correspondent to the "HERALD," one who knows both what to say and how to say it; the latter is an important quality in any man, and a lesson which many, also, don't learn in a life time. It is a pity said correspondent, whoever he may be, is not a newspaper editor.

The Cologne corr. to HERALD has my thanks for his tender feelings towards me, as expressed in HERALD of Sept. 14. But would not more "Cologne" in Cologne, be better than so much beer?

Ferd Tesch expressed himself highly pleased with his Walter A. Wood self binder, and states that it done excellent work. Mr. Tesch had 17 stacks of grain, far surpassing any one else in this immediate neighborhood, save Ludwig Karls, who had 14 or 15.

One of Carl Block's horses was wound pretty badly gored by a cow. Would heal but slowly.
